

Settlement Worker in Schools

Simonetta Hinojosa

Greetings!

My name is Simonetta and I am the Settlement Worker in Schools (SWIS) at the Cowichan Intercultural Society.

In the SWIS role, my job is to be a bridge between families (including students) and the schools. Connecting newcomers to services, resources, and supports in both the school and community.

I am booking appointments now to meet with youth and families to find out how I can best assist you and help your child succeed at school.

Please be in touch with me – by email, or phone– to book an appointment. I am happy to meet at the office or beside your front door, with or without the help of an interpreter.
